- END -

Explanation - These amendments revise the definitions of "additional compensation" in both MPORS and FURS to exclude pay for shift differentials, compensatory time, and sick leave. For the MPORS, the definition of "additional compensation" would also exclude pay for annual leave. The amendments then add these types of payments back to the list of payments that are NOT included in the definition of "compensation" in both MPORS and FURS.

Amendments 9. and 10. are strictly editor technical cleanup to provide consistency and accuracy in current law.
